The Collis-Bullock wedding party.

At St. John's Church in Pembroke Judith Bullock, daughter of Mr and Mrs Arthur Bullock of Devonshire, became the bride of John Charles Ross Collis, son of Mr and Mrs Charles T. Collis of Devonshire. The Revd Terrence Abernethy performed the rites, with Mr William Duncan at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Laurie Manderson as maid of honour, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Karen Marshall, Valerie Lobb and Jenny Cassidy. Mistress Sarah Bullock acted as flower girl.

Mr Mark Manners was best man, and Messrs Graham and Charles Collis (brothers of the groom), Mr Brooks Klimley and Mr Roger Daw were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at "Greenhill", home of the groom's parents. The couple have made their home in London.

At St. John's Church in Pembroke, Heather Darrell Wadson, daughter of Mr and Mrs David B. Wadson of Pembroke, became the bride of David Charles Littlejohn, son of Mr and Mrs F.C.J. Littlejohn of Smith's Parish. The Revd Brian Craddock performed the rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Emma Marie Conyers as maid of honour, and the Misses Rebecca Fetigan, Joanne Rayner and Robin Sheppard were bridesmaids. Mr Mark Samuel was best man and Messrs Fred Littlejohn, John Greenslade and Mario Oliviera were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, "Magnolia Hall" in Smith's Parish. The newly-weds have made their home in Bermuda.
