Arthur Bullock Esq.,
Bamburgh,
Cloverdale N.,
Devonshire.

Dear Arthur,

Pursuant to our discussions the other evening, I set out below the expenses relating directly to the wedding which I have paid....

Cake shop	$264.00
Liquor	$1,359.91
Marquee	100.00
Barmen	1,000.00
Carriages	270.00
Church	150.00
Police	115.50
Napkins	24.00
Speaker system	65.00
Flowers	113.00

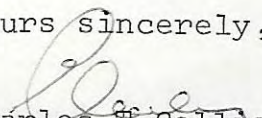

3,481.41

You should add to this the costs which were paid by you and divide the amount as arranged.

Everything seemed to go extremely well and the whole arrangement was, in my view, so much more satisfactory than being involved with a hotel.

Kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Charles T. Collis.

Dear Charles,

Thank you for your letter dated 29th October listing the expenses, relating directly to the wedding, which you settled.

Below is a list of the amounts which I have paid.

Caterer - Mrs. Smith	$2,000.00
Gratuity to Chef who iced the cake	150.00
Engravers Ltd. Invitations & Thank you notepaper	406.50
Flowers: Church & Wedding party	581.00
Photography services & photo album	500.00
	<hr/>
	$3,637.50
	<hr/>

As the difference between the totals is so small, I would be happy to consider that we are "squared away", if that is o.k. with you.

It was a grand affair and thank you again for all your help.

Kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Arthur Bullock)

Dear Arthur,

Thank you for your letter of the 17th
November regarding the expenses for the wedding which have been paid by you.

I accept your suggestion and consider the matter squared away and I would like to thank you for doing this.

Yours sincerely,
