Your Sorrow*

Dear Margaret,

I was so sorry to hear of Charles' death and would like to extend a special sympathy to you and the family at this very sad time.

His interest, enthusiasm,

his expertise will be missed.

As a friend, I always enjoyed his company and his humor.

My thoughts are with you at this time.

Dear Margaret:

It is always difficult to convey our feelings of sorrow over the loss of a friend but in Charles' case it is particularly difficult to find sufficient words to describe the loss to Bermuda, to his friends and business associates and especially to you, Margaret, and your boy and their families.

We all share in your sorrow but the many friends you have are constantly thinking of you and you can draw comfort from that knowledge.

Please accept our most sincere condolences.

We are so sorry to hear of Charles' death and send all our love, thoughts and prayers for you all.

As Graham mentioned to you, we hope to be in London end June / beginning July and will have Douglas with us. Cathy is making plans for a visit to Luxemburg and Paris Disney World. If you are planning a trip to the U.K. we would love to see you - if it would be possible.

I would like to mention, once again, how grateful we are at your opening your

Dearest Margaret

I'm so sorry to have heard about Charlie and find it very hard to believe. Please know that you are in my thoughts and that you have my deepest sympathy. I feel so grateful that I was able to spend those six months in Bermuda with you and Charles. He was so very kind to me, very generous and always full of advice on "life" in general. I think he was a wonderful man and recall telling him he was an inspiration (which I think he was secretly quite pleased with!) I can only begin to imagine how devastated you must feel and I only hope this brings you a small measure of comfort. I hope that I will see you again in the not too distant future. Look after yourself. Lots and lots of love, Catharina

Dear Margaret -

Please know that we are thinking of you and the family in the untimely loss of your dear Charles.

Although we have been drawn together in the context of business and the Bata family, we look upon our friendship with you both as something more personal - we will all miss Charles. "Bermuda" will miss Charles - he gave unstintingly to the quality of life here and it was gratifying to read all the warm commendations that came from so many quarters for his broad and significant contribution to the island.

You have every reason to be wonderfully proud of Tom as he paid a heartwarming tribute to his father last Friday - that, coupled with your grandson's outstanding participation in the service did great honour to Charles.

It is a wonderful compliment to you both that you are surrounded with such fine and caring families and I would know that you played a major part in contributing to their strength and

Dear John -

I was sad to hear that your father passed away. I will always remember that your Dad always asked after my father when he was ill all those years and wanted to know how Mum was coping. Most people were too uncomfortable asking and I appreciated his kindness.

I was very moved by the tribute that you gave to your father - it was a wonderful gift to him and I'm sure it was a terribly difficult trip to do. Alexander was wonderful - your Dad would have been proud of his family. Love to you & your family. Truly

Thinking of You at This Difficult Time

Ottawa 9 April 98

Dear Margaret.

Because of a temporary move to a kinder winter climate, we did not receive Jessie's February letter, which informed us of Charles' untimely death, until the end of March.

Anna and I both feel sure that your bereavement was eased to some extent by your supportive family. Belated words of comfort will after the sad event are difficult to select, because they often sound futile. Never-the-less we hope that the sentiments, all be they penned anonymously, as expressed on the right, as close enough to be acceptable.

Anna knew Charles when they were Dalhousie U. undergraduates during the early 1950s, moreover, we met his mother on several occasions in Halifax after we were married. A long time ago, when we were young, we could not foresee what was in store for all of us I guess. Perhaps we should have paid more attention to our writers, such as Verna Harder. I have an affinity for her quotation: "This life we live but cannot fathom; we hold it hungrily, and cry for time, the thief, to pass us by."

Love Andy

He was a lovely man and I always enjoyed chatting to him.

He was always interested to hear about my little house in the Dordogne.

Dear Mrs Collis,

I was very sorry to hear that Charles had died. It was very unfortunate that we could not do anything to change the course of his disease, or even diagnose it! To the present time, none of the tests have been revealing, and no consultant has arrived at a new formulation.

Given the lack of a diagnosis or treatment, the relatively short course of his illness was probably a blessing.

I offer my deepest sympathies and condolences.

The Collis Family.

Dear Family.

We are deeply grieved to learn of the loss of dear Mr. Collis so suddenly, to unexpectedly. Deeply deplore such untimely passing. Your family, indeed, Bermuda deprived of talented indefatigable worker for the cause, so dear to his beloved heart. We pray for his soul as it wings its flight to its Creator and for his family as they continue on without his presence

Dear Margaret, just a line to say 'Hello' & to tell you that you are often in our thoughts & prayers. We hope you are keeping well as we are. Cui's back surgery has been very successful. You did mention that you would like to know just when we will be in London. We are booked to Brussels on June 13 & plan a 10 day stop over with Cathy. It will be quite delightful to visit with her & to 'discover' Luxembourg. On June 23rd we fly to London & will be in the UK until July 30th - we then fly back to Brussels - Graham & Douglas (Graham's son) will then fly into Johannesburg & I will stay as with Cathy until + August 13. I hope these dates give you a clear idea as to when we will be over there & sincerely hope we can get together. I intend writing to Jimmy & Peter to find out if it is at all possible for us to stay in their flat in Victoria as we want to show Doug the sights of London & as Katie would be so outrageously expensive for us. Cui Ross has been living with us since end December. So very frail & needs a good deal of attention. Ted & Betty came up & lived here with her for 3 weeks Jan/Feb for us to go to the Cape with our overseas visitors. The Cape was as beautiful as ever - & we had an first visit
