Thinking of You

Margaret & family

We all experience loss,

but no one can understand exactly what you are feeling.

Simply know that there are many people who are thinking of you at this difficult time.

We were shocked to learn of Charles passing upon our return to the Island over the weekend. We will always have fond memories of him, both in person & on the social side, and of course on the golf course.

love Marianne & Michael

P.S. John and Alexandra were fantastic!

Mrs Ellis,

May I also take this opportunity on behalf of Sharon and myself to extend our heartfelt condolences as a couple on the passing of Charles.

Charles was a keen contributor on any number of levels and his contributions were greater than most. We know only too well that he could not have done it without your support and that of his family.

We are very sorry that we were abroad and unable to pay tribute by attending the funeral.

Our thoughts and our prayers are with you and your family.

May Memories Comfort You

To His Colleagues + family members,

We can't know
why sad things happen...
we can only know that, in time,
the pain will go away...
and in its place,
the beautiful and special memories,
the keepsakes of the heart,
will always remain.

May cherished memories give you peace as every day goes by
And bring you reassurance that love can never die-- For just as long as love endures and lives within your heart,
You and your dear loved one will never be apart.

As you all know, Charles was a very special person; he will be missed at C O + P, especially by those who were fortunate enough to work with him in the early days when clients were being sought & the firm built to its prestigious place in the community. He was a man one will not forget. Jo Marshall

May Memories Comfort You

The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand,
The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land,
The music stops, and yet it echoes on in sweet refrains...
For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains.

May your memories
bring you comfort and keep your loved one close in heart.

Sincerely,
Tim & Karen
Reynolds.

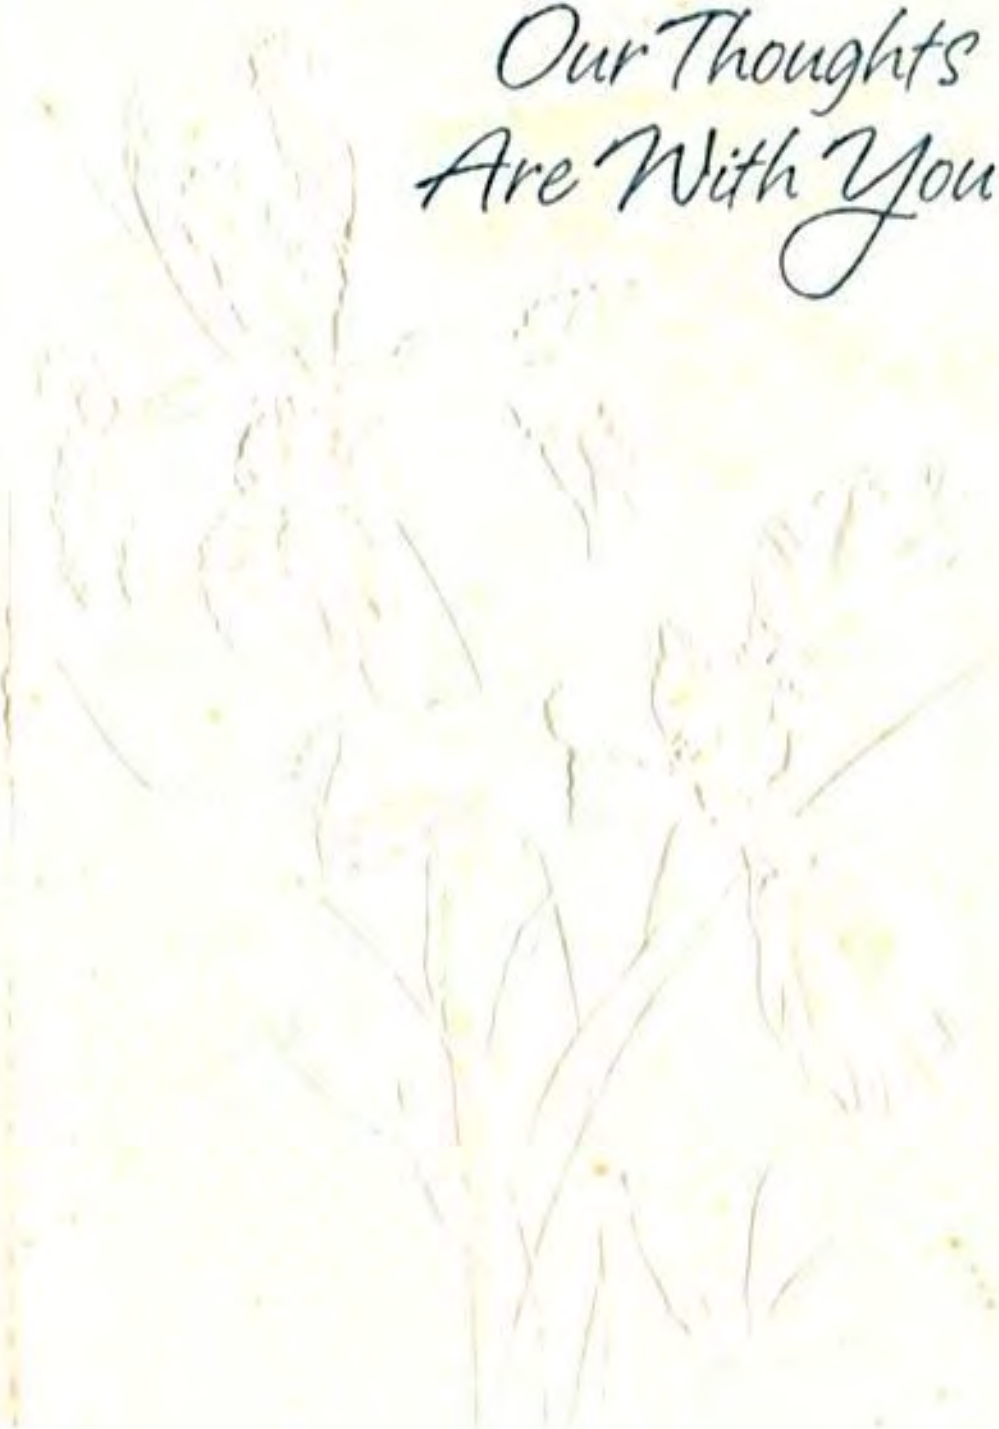
Our Thoughts Are With You



Dear Margaret

There is so little we can do to help you bear your sorrow...
There is so little we can say to help you through tomorrow...
But may these few words comfort you
and let you know somehow Our heartfelt thoughts and sympathy
are there with you right now.

With Our Deepest Sympathy

Fondly
Peg and Ron

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

and all your family. You have certainly been in our thoughts and prayers since we learned of Charles illness

Sincerely,
Lee

Dear Margaret,

Charles always represented to me all that was good about lawyers, and about Bermudians who had a sense of duty to the island for all the good things it allowed him to do. He always appeared to love life, was interested in all kinds of people and ideas and we feel cheated that he could have enjoyed it longer.

Roger joins me in sending our sincere sympathy to you. John. Charles. Graham

Dear Margaret—

Words are useless at a time like this but wanted you to know that my heart goes out to you and your family.

Thank you for making that trip to Hickory with Charles— I appreciate having the opportunity of communication with him.

Fond regards

My heart has been so "heavy" since I learned of Charles' death. Cyril & I have always had great respect for him, and his contributions to Bermuda have been of benefit to us all. Be with you, and all the family, courage and peace.

Sincerely,

Lilian

At this time
of loss and sorrow,
there is little words can do,
But may the deep concern of others
help to comfort you.

With love + sympathy,

Lilian + Cyril

What a wonderful blessing to have had such a good father. May your memories sustain you all through out the years to come.

Debra Adams

It saddened me to learn of your father's death. A fellow I held in the highest regard. You have my sincere condolences.

Mimi

May you be assured that those who care
are lifting you up to the Father in prayer.

PRAYING FOR YOU
DURING THIS TIME

My sincere condolences
Phyllis B. Price

We are so sorry to hear of your father's passing. Please accept our sincere condolences.

Your father was a very special person and he will be sadly missed. I feel I am privileged to have known him.

Joyce McDaniel

Memories are treasures of the heart. When loved ones have to part the remain forever in our hearts. Cherish the memories of your father.

Joy Butterfield

I was very shocked and saddened at the loss of your father. He was a warm and wonderful person.
