Paulo Cezar Aragão is a senior partner of Barbosa, Müssnich & Aragão, a law firm with more than 130 lawyers and offices in Rio de Janeiro, São Paulo and Brasília. Barbosa, Müssnich & Aragão has been listed three times by Chambers Global as one of the best M&A firms in Latin America and once as one of the best banking law firms.

Before joining the firm in 1997, Mr Aragão was, from 1994, managing partner and general counsel of GP Investimentos—a private equity firm. Mr Aragão graduated from State University of Rio de Janeiro Law School (JD, 1973). His professional experience also includes working at Gouvêa Vieira (1982-1994) and as associate general counsel, (1978-1979) and general counsel (1979-1981) of the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission. Currently, he is also vice president of the Arbitration Chamber of Bovespa (São Paulo Stock Exchange).

Mr Aragão heads the São Paulo office of the firm and focuses his practice on corporate and securities law; corporate finance; mergers & acquisitions; arbitration and international business transactions. He handled the legal structuring of the largest privatisation in Latin America—Telebras (Brazil's telecommunications company)—and worked on some of the largest M&A transactions in Brazil.

Mr Aragão has been recognised as one of the top Brazilian lawyers in M&A, capital markets and banking by many distinguished publications, including Chambers Global and Global Counsel. In 2000 Chambers Global ranked Mr Aragão as one of the world's 20 leading lawyers. Mr Aragão speaks regularly at conferences in Brazil and abroad and has published several articles on corporate law and capital markets, among others.

Mr Aragão has been a member of the Commission on International Arbitration, International Chamber of Commerce (Paris) since 1989 and, since 1977, of the Stock Market Regulation Commission appointed by the Brazilian Securities and Exchange Commission. He is also a member of the International Bar Association. He was general counsel (1986-1987) and director (1986-1991) of the American Chamber of Commerce, and director since 1986 of the Brazilian Association of Publicly-held Companies (ABRASCA), of which he is a member and first chairman of the Legislation Committee. Mr Aragão was also a member of the working group of the OCDE White Paper on the Corporate Governance in Latin America (2003).

Nicholas Dietrich is a partner in the Toronto office of Gowlings, Canada's second largest law firm with over 700 professionals in eight offices across Canada and internationally.

Mr Dietrich's practice is concentrated in corporate law with extensive exposure to mergers and acquisitions, finance and private equity. In the past five years he has acted on behalf of GPs/LPs in Canada, the US and Europe in over 60 private equity funds. Mr Dietrich acts regularly for foreign funds in the narrower area of 'Canadianisation' of subscription agreements, private placement memoranda and compliance with local securities laws.

Mr Dietrich has appeared on panels and lectured in the past to organisations such as the International Limited Partners Association, the Canadian Corporate Counsel Association, Federated Press, Infonex and The Canadian Institute as well as on behalf of The Law Society of Upper Canada and as a faculty member of The Canadian Bar Association's Annual Institute in Ontario. In addition, he has assisted in the preparation of materials on international financing for the Practising Law Institute in New York and has appeared on Report on Business TV. Mr Dietrich has authored/co-authored over thirty articles in the past five years on diverse topics, including private equity, M&A and venture capital.

Mr Dietrich received an Honours BA in Business and Economics from Wilfrid Laurier University (where he stood second in his graduating class), an LLB from Osgoode Hall Law School and an MBA from the University of Toronto (where he again stood second in his graduating class and was a Seagram Scholar, one of eight such scholars across Canada).

Stephen M Vine heads the corporate and securities practice group of the New York office of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, and was one of the founding partners of the office in April 1993. He also serves on the firm-wide executive and management committees.

Mr Vine's practice focuses exclusively on domestic and foreign investment funds and investment management. He has supervised the formation and offering of private investment funds that have raised more than US$20 billion of capital. These funds have involved a variety of investment disciplines including macro trading, distressed investments, emerging markets, domestic and foreign real estate, strategic and direct investments, arbitrage strategies, financial services and intellectual property. In addition to the creation of investment funds, Mr Vine's practice includes advice on the execution of investment transactions, as well as on the formation, operation and regulation of investment management firms and related service companies, including broker-dealers.

Prior to joining Akin Gump, Mr Vine was a partner at Coudert Brothers. He earned his AB magna cum laude in 1974 and his JD cum laude in 1977 from Harvard University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He is a member of the New York Bar.

Mr Wolitzer is a partner at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, where he focuses on private investments funds. He has represented many large and well-known private equity fund sponsors, including Blackstone, Heardland Industrial Partners, Lehman Brothers, Quadrangle, and Silver Lake, as well as sponsors of real estate, venture capital, mezzanine and distressed debt funds. He has also represented global financial institutions in connection with their employee investment programmes. Mr Wolitzer has been involved in a number of acquisitions, and investments in private investment firms, and has represented buyers, sellers and sponsors regarding the disposition of private fund interests.

Mr Wolitzer is on the Executive Committee of the Private Investment Fund Forum. He has served on panels at several industry conferences, including 'How to Negotiate Winning Partnership Terms and Conditions' (Private Equity Analyst Conferences), 'Buying, Selling and Investing in Private Investment Fund Managers', 'Negotiating Fund Terms and Conditions' and 'Employee Investment Arrangements' (IBA/ABA Conferences on Private Investment Funds), 'Private Equity Funds: Investment Constraints and Key Issues to Watch Out For' (City Bar Conference on Leveraged Buyouts and Other Private Equity Investments), and 'How to Effectively Manage Multiple Funds' and 'Private Equity Funds: Partnering and Strategic Alliances' (IIR Conferences on Private Equity Fund Formation).

Mr Wolitzer has been a partner at Simpson Thacher since 1998. He received his AB magna cum laude in 1986 from Duke University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Mr Wolitzer received his JD in 1989 from Columbia University, where he was a James Kent Scholar and a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.

Michael Wolitzer is a partner at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP, where he focuses on private investments funds. He represents many large and well-known private equity fund sponsors, including Blackstone, Centerbridge, Lexington, One Equity, Quadrangle, and Silver Lake, as well as sponsors of real estate, venture capital, mezzanine and distressed debt funds. He has also represented global financial institutions in connection with their employee investment programmes. Wolitzer has been involved in a number of acquisitions, and investments in private investment firms, and has represented buyers, sellers and sponsors regarding the disposition of private fund interests.

Wolitzer is the co-chairman of the IBA Subcommittee on Private Investment Funds and is on the executive committee of the Private Investment Fund Forum. He has served on panels at several industry conferences, including "How to Negotiate Winning Partnership Terms and Conditions" (Private Equity Analyst Conferences), "Buying, Selling and Investing in Private Investment Fund Managers", "Negotiating Fund Terms and Conditions" and "Employee Investment Arrangements" (IBA/ABA conferences on private investment funds), "Private Equity Funds: Investment Constraints and Key Issues to Watch Out For" (City Bar Conference on Leveraged Buyouts and Other Private Equity Investments), and "How to Effectively Manage Multiple Funds" and "Private Equity Funds: Partnering and Strategic Alliances" (IIR conferences on private equity fund formation).

Wolitzer has been a partner at Simpson Thacher since 1998. He received his AB magna cum laude in 1986 from Duke University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He received his JD in 1989 from Columbia University, where he was a James Kent Scholar and a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar.

John E Tavss is a partner in Seward & Kissel's investment management group. Mr Tavss has practised at the firm since 1979, and has been a partner since 1988.

Mr Tavss advises clients on a wide variety of securities, tax and business law matters, relating to the investment management business. Mr Tavss has significant expertise in the investment management area including the representation of hedge funds, other private investment vehicles (both onshore and offshore) and private equity funds. Mr Tavss is a frequent speaker on hedge fund and other private investment fund issues.

Mr Tavss received a BA degree (with honours) from the University of Virginia in 1976, a JD degree from Vanderbilt University School of Law in 1979, and an LLM in taxation from New York University School of Law. He is a member of the New York Bar, and a member of the New York State Bar Association (tax section) and International Bar Association (investment funds section).

Seward & Kissel is one of the leading law firms in the hedge fund area dating back to the early 1950s, having represented AW Jones & Company, which is considered to be the first hedge fund. Seward & Kissel's hedge fund/private investment partnership team, which consists of approximately 50 attorneys, is part of the firm's investment management group. The investment management group represents both registered and unregistered funds, as well as investment advisers, underwriters, sponsors and directors to those funds. Seward & Kissel, with offices in both New York and in Washington, DC, offers sophisticated legal advice emphasising business, financial and commercial law and related litigation.

Michael W. Wolitzer is a partner at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP in the firm's corporate department. Mr. Wolitzer's practice focuses on private investing and other facets of alternative asset management. He has also represented some of the largest and well-known sponsors of private equity funds, such as Blackstone, Centerbridge, Lexington, JPMorgan/OneEquity, Quadrangle and Silver Lake. He has also represented sponsors in other asset categories such as real estate, mezzanine, energy/infrastructure and credit/distressed debt. In addition, he has represented global financial institutions in the establishment of their employee investment programmes, has been involved in a number of acquisitions of, and investments in, private investment firms, and has represented buyers, sellers and sponsors regarding the disposition of private fund interests.

Mr. Wolitzer was until recently the co-chairman of the subcommittee on private investment funds of the International Bar Association and is a member of the executive committee (and former chairman) of the Private Investment Fund Forum (a group comprising New York City attorneys who practise extensively in the private fund area). He has served on the advisory boards of the Private Equity Analyst (relating to its survey of private equity partnership terms and conditions), the private equity investment guidelines group, the advisory board of the Private Equity CFO Association and on the industry committee on Real Estate Fund Secondary Transfers.

Mr. Wolitzer has served on panels at several industry conferences, including: "How to Negotiate Winning Partnership Terms and Conditions", "Best Practices in PPMs and Roadshows" and "How to Raise Money and on What Terms?" (Private Equity Analyst Conferences); "Buying, Selling and Investing in Private Investment Fund Managers", "Negotiating Fund Terms and Conditions", "Employee Investment Arrangements", "The Push for Standards in the Private Equity Business", "Mergers and Acquisitions of Private Investment Firms" and "Convergence of Private Equity and Hedge Funds" (IBA/ABA conferences on private investment funds); "Private Equity Funds: Investment Constraints and Key Issues to Watch Out For" (City Bar Conference on leveraged buyouts and other private equity investments); and "How to Effectively Manage Multiple Funds", "Current Issues Roundtable" and "Private Equity Funds: Partnering and Strategic Alliances" (IIR Conferences on private equity fund formation).

Mr. Wolitzer has been a partner at Simpson Thacher since 1998. He received his AB, magna cum laude, from Duke University in 1986, where he was elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Wolitzer received his JD from The Columbia University School of Law in 1989, where he was a James Kent Scholar (1987-1988) and a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar (1986-1987, 1988-1989).

Michael W Wolitzer is a partner at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP in the firm's corporate department. Mr Wolitzer's practice focuses on private investing and other facets of alternative asset management. He has represented some of the largest and well-known sponsors of private equity funds, such as Apax Partners, Blackstone, Centerbridge, Lexington, JPMorgan/OneEquity, Patria and Silver Lake. He has also represented sponsors in other asset categories such as real estate, mezzanine, energy and infrastructure and credit and distressed debt. In addition, he has represented global financial institutions in the establishment of their employee investment programmes, has been involved in a number of acquisitions of, and investments in, private investment firms and has represented buyers, sellers and sponsors regarding the disposition of private fund interests.

Mr Wolitzer was until recently the co-chairman of the subcommittee on private investment funds of the International Bar Association and is a member of the executive committee (and former chairman) of the Private Investment Fund Forum (a group comprising New York City attorneys who practise extensively in the private fund area). He has served on the advisory boards of the Private Equity Analyst (relating to its survey of private equity partnership terms and conditions), the private equity investment guidelines group, the advisory board of the Private Equity CFO Association and on the industry committee on Real Estate Fund Secondary Transfers.

Mr Wolitzer has served on panels at several industry conferences, including "How to Negotiate Winning Partnership Terms and Conditions", "Best Practices in PPMs and Roadshows" and "How to Raise Money and on What Terms?" (Private Equity Analyst Conferences); "Buying, Selling and Investing in Private Investment Fund Managers", "Negotiating Fund Terms and Conditions", "Employee Investment Arrangements", "The Push for Standards in the Private Equity Business", "Mergers and Acquisitions of Private Investment Firms" and "Convergence of Private Equity and Hedge Funds" (IBA/ABA conferences on private investment funds); "Private Equity Funds: Investment Constraints and Key Issues to Watch Out For" (City Bar Conference on leveraged buyouts and other private equity investments); and "How to Effectively Manage Multiple Funds", "Current Issues Roundtable" and "Private Equity Funds: Partnering and Strategic Alliances" (IIR Conferences on private equity fund formation).

Mr Wolitzer has been a partner at Simpson Thacher since 1998. He received his AB, magna cum laude, from Duke University in 1986, where he was elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Mr Wolitzer received his JD from The Columbia University School of Law in 1989, where he was a James Kent Scholar from 1987 to 1988 and a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar, from 1986 to 1987 and 1988 to 1989.

Michael G Tannenbaum is a founding partner of Tannenbaum Helpern and heads the firm's financial services, private funds and capital markets group. With over 35 years of experience, he regularly advises clients on the organisational, structural, compliance and regulatory aspects of US-based and non-US-based private funds, hedge funds, private equity arrangements, commodity pools, complex structured arrangements, index products, exchange-traded funds, seeding arrangements, mergers, acquisitions and consolidations, and related tax and ERISA implications. His clients include investment advisers, funds, fund sponsors, multi-manager and fund-of-fund platforms, principals, global institutions, law firms relating to matters of US law, and family offices with regard to regulatory and organisational matters, as well as estate and succession planning. He has served as an arbitrator in complex private fund and investment management cases and in National Futures Association disputes and business conduct matters.

Michael has served as vice chair of the American Bar Association's hedge funds subcommittee and was a participant and presenter at the SEC Hedge Fund Roundtable in Washington, DC, in 2001. He has written and co-authored numerous articles on hedge fund law and regulation, such as: "Current Regulatory Regime For Investment Advisers Post Dodd-Frank", New York State Bar Association; 2012 "Developments in Family Office Regulation", The Hedge Fund Law Report, 2010-2011; "New Regulatory Provisions in the US Affecting Non-US Investment Advisers", GlobalNote for an industry conference presentation, 2010; "Protecting the Family Office by Using Managed Accounts", 2010; "Hedge Fund Regulatory Outlook for 2009"; "Hedge Funds Brace Themselves for More Regulation in the US", The Hedge Fund Journal, 2009; "Putting Structures in Place" (relating to carbon funds), Environmental Finance, 2009; "How to Start a Hedge Fund in the US", Hedge Fund Manager, 2007.

He is a frequent speaker at industry conferences including the Practising Law Institute's hedge funds programme, numerous OPAL, GAIM and MAR conferences, and programmes sponsored by the International Bar Association (private funds section). Michael has served, with distinction, as co-chair of US Managed Funds Association (MFA), served on a steering committee of the legal issues forum (2006 to 2008) and is a past president of the Hedge Fund Association.

Michael is a graduate of New York University Law School (LLM Taxation, 1971), New York Law School (JD, 1970) and Fairleigh Dickinson University (BS, 1967).

Tannenbaum Helpern is a general practice commercial law firm with expertise in a variety of areas of law in addition to financial services law, including real estate, corporate, employment, intellectual property, trusts and estates, taxation and litigation.
